IMPORTED PROSCIUTTO

70919 12/14-18 oz. Pre-Sliced Resealable Package

Prosciutto is an Italian dry-cured ham that melts in your mouth when sliced thin enough. The process of curing Prosciutto is still considered an art form in Italy. Using only salt, the meat is dried and aged for 8 to 12 months, then hand-selected and hand-trimmed. With its delicately sweet, slightly salty flavor and soft, buttery goodness, Prosciutto is always a versatile choice.

Our Imported Prosciutto comes directly from the Parma region of Italy. The highlight to any charcuterie board, this prosciutto pairs well with less-salty cheeses such as mozzarella or Parmesan. SMOKED PROSCIUTTO 70705

12/3oz Pre-Sliced Resealable Package

Prosciutto is an Italian dry-cured ham that melts in your mouth when sliced thin enough. The process of curing Prosciutto is still considered an art form in Italy. Using only salt, the meat is dried and aged for 8 to 12 months, then hand-selected and hand-trimmed. With its delicately sweet, slightly salty flavor and soft, buttery goodness, Prosciutto is always a versatile choice.

Prosciutto is the highlight to any charcuterie board, pairing well with less-salty cheeses such as mozzarella or Parmesan. The sweetness of fruits like melon or fig complements the delicious fattiness of Prosciutto as well. Our thin, pre-cut slices make it easy to incorporate this regional favorite into any dish. Enjoy Smoked Prosciutto in a sandwich, on pizza, or any meal – as long as the flavor is allowed to shine.

Sensory Specifications

Smoked Prosciutto is slightly sweet with natural smoke flavor. Its deep rosy color and sweet white fat complement the slightly firm and tender texture.

SOPRESSATA 70730

4/2.5 lbs. Pre-Sliced Resealable Package

Fiorucci Sopressata is similar in style to salami but presents a coarser grind that's delicately seasoned with whole peppercorns for an even more refined flavor. Featuring cured, fermented and air-dried pork, our Sopressata boasts delicate, tangy, mild flavors from peppercorns and authentic Italian spices, highlighting natural flavorings of white and black pepper.

Originating in Cosenza, Italy, Sopressata is a unique salami variety that's distinct in texture and shape. It's often flattened as a result of pressing during the drying process. This striking salami variety with hot peppery tastes is excellent when washed down with intense, highly acidic wines. This slightly pungent, convenient, ready-to-eat product is great on its own or highlighted atop homemade bread, paired with Asiago cheese or incorporated into your favorite polenta or risotto recipe.

Sensory Specifications

Appearing rosy pink and coarsely ground with specks of coarse white fat, our pre-sliced Sopressata has a delicate, tangy, mild flavor and delicate aromas with hints of garlic and peppercorns.
